

FBI AGENT ADAM ANGST SPEAKS ON TERRORISM

On the fifth anniversary of the World Trade Center tragedy in New York City, former Abilene resident FBI agent Adam Angst will discuss the war on terrorism, and the FBI's roll in combating terrorism.

Angst serves the Phoenix, Arizona division as a SWAT team leader and a firearms instructor, along with training federal, state, and local police officers in anti-terrorism training.

Angst will speak at 7 p.m. in the Library Auditorium at the Eisenhower Center on September 11, 2006.

This program is sponsored by the Eisenhower Center and the Eisenhower Foundation and is free and open to the public. To reserve a seat call 785-263-6700 or toll free 1-877-RING IKE, by September 8, 2006.